January 2010

NAFC Board of Directors invites you to renew your Family Friendly Business certification. We have enclosed the 2010 application and information pertinent to your business. .

Local businesses that exemplify a family friendly workplace by meeting some or all of the established criteria receive the 2010 NAFC Family Friendly Business designation. Plaques will be presented to the designees at the sixteenth annual NAFC Celebration Dinner, April 7, 2010 at the Country Club of Naples. A logo is available for use on letterheads and other printed materials.

Please return the Family Friendly Workplace Renewal Form with appropriate supporting documents to Naples Alliance for Children at the above address by February 26. Note that to receive the Outstanding Employer of the Year award you must indicate new benefits with supportive documentation.

NAFC is committed to providing the tools needed to help create a work environment that meets the expanding and challenging role of the working parent. Business and resource professionals are available to provide information and assistance in making your workplace family friendly. Call 649-5260 for information or an appointment.

Sincerely,

Myra Shapiro, President
Naples Alliance for Children
